

-----Original Message-----

From: Announcement [mailto:MyFAU_Administrator@fau.edu]
Sent: Wednesday, November 12, 2008 12:22 PM
To: undisclosed-recipients
Subject: Administration Building Now Open

This is to notify the University community that the Administration Building on the Boca Raton campus was closed for a short period earlier today because of a suspicious package. A police investigation and testing by Boca Raton Fire Rescue have concluded that no hazardous materials were found and the incident was a hoax, so the building has been re-opened. Thanks to everyone who works in or had business in the building for their patience this morning.